

RAMEY HAILEY & RILEY
(Composed of Professional Partnerships)

RICHARD D. HAILEY, admitted to bar, 1974, Indiana and U.S. District Court, Northern and Southern Districts of Indiana, also admitted to United District Court of Colorado, 7th Circuit Court of Appeals, United States Supreme Court, United States Court of Claims, and U.S. Tax Court. EDUCATION: Indiana University (J.D., 1974); Georgetown University Law Center (L.L.M., 1983). MEMBER: Association of Trial Lawyers of America, President from 1997-1998; Board of Directors, Indiana Trial Lawyers Association; Best Lawyers in America each year since 1998; Roscoe Pond Foundation Fellow; inducted into the American Law Institute in 1996; Mississippi Trial Lawyers Association; Colorado Trial Lawyers Association; Board of Trustees of Butler University. PRACTICE AREAS: Personal Injury; Medical Malpractice; Products Liability and Class Actions. SIGNIFICANT CASES: Participated in Fen Phen litigation, PPA Litigation and Dalkon Shield litigation. With the Poverty Law Center Mr. Hailey successfully obtained civil judgments against hate groups including The Knights of the KKK and Jeff Berry Grand Dragon. He also had been involved in Construction/Commercial cases primarily in the western United States. He is a frequent lecturer throughout the United States and has appeared on CLE programs in 47 states.

MARY BETH RAMEY, admitted to bar, Indiana 1972, Colorado 2000. U.S. District Court, Northern and Southern Districts of Indiana, District of Colorado, Eastern District of Kentucky, Eastern District of Virginia, United States Court of Appeals 6th Circuit and 7th Circuit. EDUCATION: Indiana University (B.A., M.A, 1966). MEMBER: Association of Trial Lawyers of America; first woman on the Indiana Trial Lawyers Board of Directors, first and only woman President, 1992; first woman to serve as an Emeritus Director; first woman elected to the College of Fellows; President, College of Fellows 2000 and 2001; Fellow: National Endowment for Humanities, University of Chicago Law School; Indiana Trial Lawyer of the Year; Best Lawyers in America, 2001, 2002, National Law Journal, Top Ten Trial Lawyers, 1991; Who's Who in American Law; currently Governor from Indiana to the Association of Trial Lawyers of America's governing body; served as Chair of the Dalkon Shield Claimant's Creditors Committee in the mass tort Chapter 11 involving A.H. Robins Pharmaceutical Company. PRACTICE AREAS: Personal Injury, Medical Malpractice and Products Liability. SIGNIFICANT CASES: Participated in Fen Phen litigation, PPA Litigation, Dalkon Shield litigation and Breast Implant litigation.

WILLIAM N. RILEY, admitted to bar, 1989, Indiana and U.S. District Courts, Southern and Northern Districts of Indiana; 1992, U.S. Court of Appeals, 7th Circuit. EDUCATION: Indiana University (B.A., 1986; J.D., 1989). Executive Editor, Indiana Law Journal, 1988-1989. Author: "On the Telos of Man and Law," 64 Indiana Law Journal, 1989; contributing author, "Common Truths", ISI Books, 2000; Goodrich Lecturer, Wabash College. MEMBER: The Association of Trial Lawyers of America (Member, Key Persons Committee); Indiana Trial Lawyers Association (Board of Directors), Listed in the Martindale-Hubbell's Bar Register of Preeminent Lawyers.

PRACTICE AREAS: Personal Injury; Medical Malpractice; Products Liability; Class Actions and RCRA cases. SIGNIFICANT CASES: Member of Castano litigation group; co-lead counsel in Norton v. R.J.R Nabisco et al., tobacco class action; co-lead counsel in Wiley v. R.J. Reynolds, non-smoker tobacco trial; Indiana Attorney General tobacco litigation group.

MARK K. DUDLEY, admitted to bar, 1990, Indiana and U.S. District Court, Northern and Southern Districts of Indiana; 1992, U.S. Court of Appeals, 7th Circuit.

EDUCATION: Indiana University (B.A. in History and Political Science, 1987; J.D., cum laude, 1990). MEMBER: The Association of Trial Lawyers of America; Indiana Trial Lawyers Association, Contributing Author to “The Indiana Lawyer”. PRACTICE AREAS: Asbestos Litigation; Personal Injury and Employment Law. SIGNIFICANT CASES: Member of Castano litigation group; co-lead counsel in Norton v. R.J.R Nabisco et al., tobacco class action; co-lead counsel in Wiley v. R.J. Reynolds, non-smoker tobacco trial; Indiana Attorney General tobacco litigation group.

AMY FICKLIN DeBROTA, admitted to bar, 1993, Indiana and U.S. District Court, Northern and Southern Districts of Indiana; 1999, U.S. Court of Appeals, 7th Circuit.

EDUCATION: Indiana University (B.A., 1987); (J.D., cum laude, 1993). Executive Articles Editor, Indiana Law Review, 1992-1993. Law Clerk to Honorable Linda Chezem, Indiana Court of Appeals, 1993-1994. Author: “Dumping Drug Dealers Off the Dole,” 26 Ind. L. Rev. 89, 1992. Delegate to US-USSR Emerging Leaders Summit, 1989. Assistant Director, Office for Drug Free Neighborhoods, Office of the General Counsel, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development 1989-1990. Deputy Prosecutor, Marion County, Indiana 1994-1995. MEMBER: Indiana Trial Lawyers Association; National Employment Lawyers Association; Indianapolis Bar Association (Small Firm/Solo Practitioner Committee); PRACTICE AREAS: Employment Law and Class Actions. SIGNIFICANT CASES: Freeman v. Supervalu Holdings, Equal pay/sex discrimination class action pursued with EEOC, resulting in $1.2 million total settlement. Ross, et al., v. Flagstar Bank, ongoing nationwide class action regarding discriminatory lending practices.

(For further information, see Martindale.com, “R. Douglas Hailey,” “Mary Beth Ramey,” “Young Riley Dudley & DeBrota,” and the website: <http://www.lawyers.com/yrd&dlaw>)